

The pupil's agreement.

I will:

- * come to school every day and on time.
- * bring the things that I need every day and look after them properly.
- * go to bed to sleep well every night before school.
- * work hard and do all my class work and home work as well as I can.
- * behave well, be polite and helpful to everyone and respect other people's property.
- * know what my school's Code of Conduct is and try my hardest to stick to it.
- * Follow the e-safety rules.
- * tell my teacher if anything is worrying me.
- * help to look after my school, the people in it and the equipment we use.

The QUEEN ANNE ROYAL FREE CE FIRST SCHOOL

HOME AND SCHOOL AGREEMENT

This document is a powerful statement or agreement of intent designed to make clear, the expectations for all parties for the coming year. We hope that you will discuss aspects of this agreement with your child, then sign and return it to school.

The school will ensure that:

- * we help your child to develop a sense of responsibility and be considerate of others.
- * your child is treated fairly, is well taught and looked after in a safe environment
- * a curriculum reflects children’s legal entitlements and meets children’s needs.
- * each child has a record of achievement covering all aspects of work and progress.
- * we keep you informed about your child’s progress, and about general school and educational matters through written communication and parent consultations.
- * we give you early warning of any difficulties or problems with your child’s work, relationships or behaviour.
- * any differences of opinion are resolved through discussion.

The parent/s or guardian/s agreement.

We/I will ensure that:

- * our son/daughter comes to school regularly, on time, with equipment s/he needs for the day and clothing labelled with his/her name.
- * we support our child at home and encourage positive attitudes towards learning and toward school and its staff.
- * all homework is completed on time and our son/daughter is encouraged to do their best.
- * any concerns we have are brought to the school’s attention by making an appointment with the class teacher at the end of the day.
- * we refrain from confrontation with staff in front of all children, including our own.
- * we do not take action before checking the validity with staff first of our child’s allegations and claims.
- * the school knows about any problems which might affect the work or behaviour of our child, and about where I/we can be contacted.
- * we support the school’s set of values, policies, expectations and codes of behaviour.
